

Food and Agriculture
Organization of the United Nations

July 6–10, 2025

Ulaanbaatar (Mongolia)

3rd DRYLANDS SCHOOL

Expression of Interest

The Committee on Forestry Working Group on Dryland Forests and Agrosilvopastoral Systems Dryland Schools explore transformative approaches to building climate resilient drylands. The third edition will focus on improving the governance of dryland forests, rangelands and agrosilvopastoral systems building on the experience of Mongolia, the International Year of Rangelands and Pastoralists 2026, the Sustainable Forest Management Drylands Sustainable Landscapes Impact Programme, and other neighbor countries and partners.

Interested in receiveing more information?

Fill in our expression of interest form here. You will be notified once the formal application is released!

FURTHER INFORMATION

- The Drylands School will take place in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia and is self-funded.
- Participants must have experience in dryland management and complete FAO's e-Learning course on dryland forests and agrosilvopastoral systems.
- Each participant will work on their own case study throughout the school.

The designations employed and the presentation of material in this information product do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) concerning the legal or development status of any country, territory, city or area or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers or boundaries.

Some rights reserved. This work is made available under the Creative Commons Attribution - 4.0 International licence (CC BY 4.0).